

NP.50.70.110 – Annex Scope of Licensing of Content for Mobile Apps

This Annex supplements the “GPC IT - Part K - Licensing of Content for Mobile Apps” and describes the licensed Content, its provision and availability as well as any restrictions on the scope of licensing.

1. Licensed Content

Exact designation of the licensed Content:

The licensed Content shall be updated on an ongoing basis during the term of the order and any transition period, at least as is customary for the Contractor in relation to other customers at the date of the order.

No continuous updating of the licensed content

The technical performance specification designated in the Customer’s order shall apply without any commercial or legal components (hereinafter “technical performance specification”). Details are to be specified in the technical performance specification.

2. Provision of Content for Retrieval and Availability (with Service Levels, as applicable).

The Contractor shall keep licensed Content continuously available online for retrieval by the Customer, including any group company, as well as users of mobile apps, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in the technical performance description.

Details as well as any restrictions and service levels shall be specified in the technical performance description.

3. Scope of Licensing (Tick as appropriate below)

3.1 Time limit:

none

The re-provision and availability of the licensed Content shall commence upon conclusion of the Contract and end on  (to be completed only if restriction is ticked). If no date is specified for the end, the term shall be at least one year from the publication of the Content by way of an app of the Customer or a group company.

3.2 Territorial restrictions:

none

Technically, licensed Content is generally available worldwide. However, the provision and distribution of the app for the use of the licensed Content may take place (e.g. in third-party or own app stores or in any other way) only in relation to the following countries: (only to be filled in if restriction is ticked)

3.3 Restriction according to user groups:

- none, may be used by anybody
- the use of licensed Content is restricted to the following users: (if this restriction is ticked, an alternative must also be ticked)
  - use by personnel of group companies (Daimler Truck AG and affiliated companies, §15 Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz)) and personnel of cooperation partners for their respective purposes.
  - use by personnel of group companies (Daimler Truck AG and affiliated companies, §15 Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz)) for their respective purposes and the purposes of cooperation partners.

Licensing is unrestricted in terms of time, territory and content as well as for all users, except to the extent that certain restrictions are expressly described in this Annex "Scope of Licensing of Content for Mobile Apps". In addition, the "GPC IT - Part K - Licensing of Content for Mobile Apps" shall apply.
